FIFTEEN CENTS

Pro gridder, 3 others hurt in crash

Thomas Wittum, 28, a punter for the San Francisco 49ers football team, suffered a broken left leg and right arm just before noon Monday in a three-vehicle collision at Grass Lake Rd. and Route 59 in Antioch township.

The Antioch Rescue Squad took Wittum to Condell hospital in Libertyville where he is reported in satisfactory condition.

Wittum, formerly of Round Lake, now lives in Spring Grove, sheriff's deputies said.

THREE YOUNG WOMEN also were hurt in the crash but, apparently, none seriously. They were taken to McHenry hospital, treated and released. They are from Round Lake Beach - Cheryl Cox, 18; Brenda Cox, 15, and Candy Braswell, 18.

Wittum was driving a pickup truck east on Grass Lake

FOUR PERSONS WERE INJURED at 11:30 Monday morning in a three-vehicle collision at "Nielsen's Corners," Rte. 59 and Grass Lake Rd. A dump truck went through the intersection, crashing into a pickup truck which then struck a car. Driver of the pickup truck, professional football player Tom Wittum, was the most seriously hurt. Nurse eliminated as economy measure

No action was taken by the Antioch District 34 Grade School board on a parents' petition to reinstate the school nurse for next school year.

The nurse was eliminated as an economy measure by the board, Supt. Henry Meyer explained, and would save the board about $11,000, the nurse's annual salary.

"The petition essentially recognized the need the school district has for a (school) nurse," he continued, "and said that unless a nurse was reinstated, the children would suffer."

THE BOARD DECIDED about two months ago to eliminate the school nurse from the budget and since then parents have brought a few petitions to the board asking that the position be reinstated.

The move affects Antioch Upper and Lower, Oakland and Channel Lake grade schools. Meyer said parents representing the petition have appeared to disagree with the board at the last three meetings.

However, he said that the schools are not required by law to employ a school nurse.

THE ILLINOIS OFFICE of Education (IOE) requires that a school nurse must approve the dispensing of any medicine. Meyer said that unless the IOE changes its stance, the schools would be prohibited from administering any type of medication next year.

If an injury did occur at school, the only aid permitted to be given would be primary first aid administered by a teacher or school official, or anyone present at the time. This would apply to minor injuries such as cuts and scratches, he said.

A more serious injury would be handled by calling the rescue squad so that the child could be taken to a doctor or to the hospital, he added.

TWO YEARS AGO, the district employed two nurses but one resigned and

'Super' parade planned July 2

More than 40 units already have made arrangements to march or enter floats in Antioch's Sunday, July 2, parade. The parade, at 1 p.m., will precede the dedication ceremonies at the community's Hiram Buttrick bicentennial sawmill.

"Any club, merchant or group still wishing to join in can do so by calling me," said Jimmie Quedenfeld, parade chairman, whose phone number is 395-1355.

"We hope this parade will be one of the nicest and biggest Antioch has ever had, but we need the help of all the merchants and clubs in the Antioch area," said Quedenfeld.

FOLLOWING ARE THOSE already planning to participate:

The Medinah Black Horse Troop, the See-Bees, the Great Lakes navy drill team, the Antioch High School marching band and color guard, the Antioch Grade School band, and the Chain O'Lakes Shrine Club circus wagon and clowns.

Also, HOD Disposal, the local American Legion post, the American Association of Retired Persons, Dick Thayer, the Royal Neighbors, the Antioch Township Democrat club, Women of the Moose, the Loyal Order of the Moose and the VFW Ladies Auxiliary.

Also, the First Bank of Antioch, Rittenhouse and Embree Lumber Co., Oakwood Knolls Property Owners, Thelen Sand and Gravel Co., the Antioch Lions Club, Terrence P. Link, and the Antioch Woman's Club.

Also, Bernie's Deli and Bernie's Corner, Explorer Post 88, the VFW post, St. Ignatius Episcopal Church, the State Bank of Antioch, the Antioch Rescue Squad and St. Peter's church groups and youth club.

Also in the parade will be representatives of fire departments from Antioch, Gurnee, Fox Lake, Barrington, Winthrop Harbor, Zion, Deerfield, Bonnie Brock, Wauconda, Newport and Lake Villa.

THE MEDINAH BLACK HORSE Troop, like all Shrine Club horse troops, are representatives of philanthropy - The Shriners' hospitals for crippled children.

The Medinah troop has been in existence for 25 years. The Black Horse Troop has brought many honors to Medinah Temple and to Shrinedom, having participated in the Tournament of Roses Parade three times. It also has appeared in Washington, D.C., at several Presidential inaugurations, and in 1976 it was the first place award winner in the Bicentennial Cherry Blossom Festival.

In 1962 the troop was designated by the city of Chicago as its official escort. In this capacity it has escorted U.S. presidents, the Queen of England, the president of Mexico, the Kings and Queens of Denmark and Luxembourg, the Emperor of Japan, and Prime Minister of Ireland, and U.S. astronauts.

Harold A. Loutsch of 906 Golden Ave. died after his car went out of control and stuck two trees on Rte. 132, west of Rte. 45, near Lake County sheriff's investigators said Loutsch was driving west on Rte. 132 when his car skidded on the north shoulder before hitting the trees.

Letters to the Editor

N.O.W. it's Susan's turn

(Editor's note: The writer of this letter, Susan Abderholden, is a former Antioch resident who lives in St. Paul, Minn. She is first vice-president of the Twin Cities Chapter of the National Organization for Women. This is her response to the Pfarr Corner column of May 31 in which Mr. Pfarr said, "Wasn't that just like a woman?" and then commented on Janet Guthrie's one-handed driving in the Indianapolis "500," and also on the Equal Rights Amendment. Showing a sense of humor the letter writer titled her column, "The Abderholden Corner (or) Jerry Pfarr takes another turn towards the right.")

Wasn't that just like an editor? Always expressing their sexist (Another Editor's Note: I've been called a lot of things but this is my favorite.) and right wing philosophies in their columns.

Oh well, even the New York Times expounds on controversial subjects. On May 13th they printed "The benefits of the women's suffrage are almost imaginary. The inevitable result of suffrage will be to coarsen women and lessen men's respect for them."

Alice Paul, who fought for women's suffrage and authored the Equal Rights Amendment would be appalled to have read the inaccuracies and noticed the deletions in your article.

The N.O.W. (National Organization for Women) economic boycott against unratified states is not aimed at hurting "innocent" people. Rather it is aimed at legislators who are not being responsive to their constituents and to call their attention to the fact that they are hurting women across the country who are being denied their equal rights each time a no vote is cast against the ERA.

Women and Democrats INSIDE the South (actually the majority of the people in this country) are pro-ERA. Men inside the state capitols tend to be anti-ERA.

You were correct when you stated that "The ERA is an enormously misunderstood issue." The benefits of the ERA were well stated by Congresswoman Dwyer from New Jersey in 1972 in a debate in the U.S. House of Representatives on the amendment: "It would not take women out of the home. It would not downgrade the roles of mother and housewife. Indeed it would give new dignity to these important roles. By confirming women's equality under the law, by upholding women's right to choose her place in society, the Equal Rights Amendment can only enhance the status of traditional women's occupations. For these would become positions accepted by women as equals, not roles imposed on them as inferiors."

What I can't understand, Mr. Pfarr, is why you can't see how unfair it is that the majority (and superior sector) of the population is denied their equal rights.

Susan Abderholden

From Erma Bombeck, of all people

Dear Sirs:

I am speaking out for the ERA on your pages because I feel they are the most misunderstood 24 words since "one size fits all."

Since the issue has come to a vote in your state, may I reassure those who are still with an open mind that:

1. You can still love your husband, your children, and a clean oven (not necessarily in that order) and still support the ERA.

2. You can either be anti-abortion or pro-abortion and with conscience support the ERA.

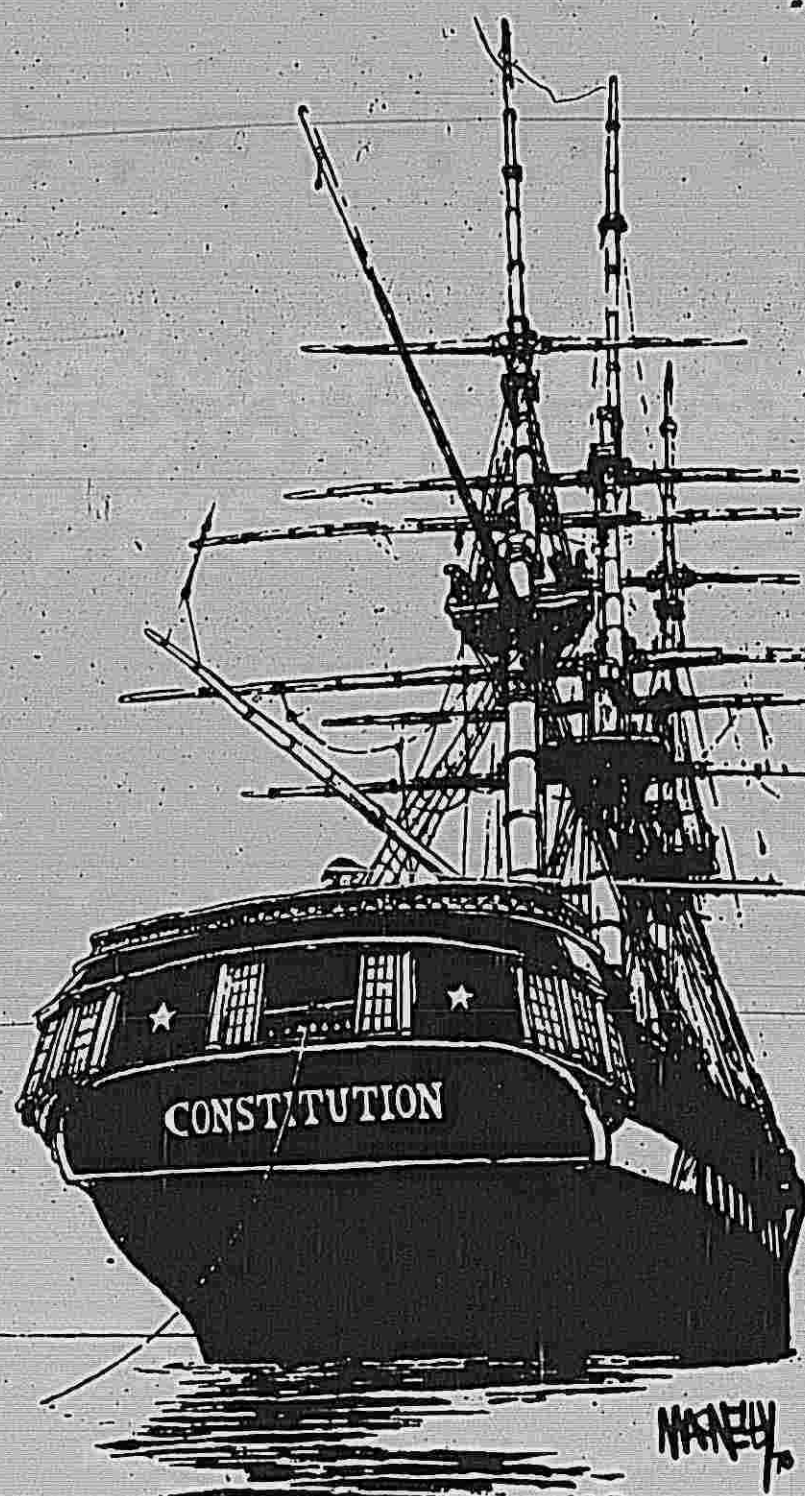

3. You can either deplore feminism or be an activist without finding a conflict with the ERA.

4. You can have a sense of humor and still support the amendment.

The ERA is not a way out of cleaning your unisexual bathrooms in the home. Some things take more than a Constitutional Amendment to change. But it is a beginning for laws that will benefit all men and women. It will give women options and the freedom to be no less than what God meant them to be.

Comments on California tax revolt

"With the results of Proposition 13 now known to the general public, California voters have said what Americans everywhere are 'thinking,' stated Republican nominee for state treasurer, James M. Skelton.

"People are fed up with more and more taxes, producing less and less tangible government services," he said.

"Citizens have tolerated unreasonable inflation caused by thoughtless government spending and waste too long," said the Champaign county treasurer. "They are determined to cut inflation off before it consumes their way of life." He added:

"We government officials cannot expect the American citizen to make sacrifice after sacrifice, while government continues to grow out of control. In this election year, candidates should not make hollow promises about cuts in spending, because the public would not believe them anyway."

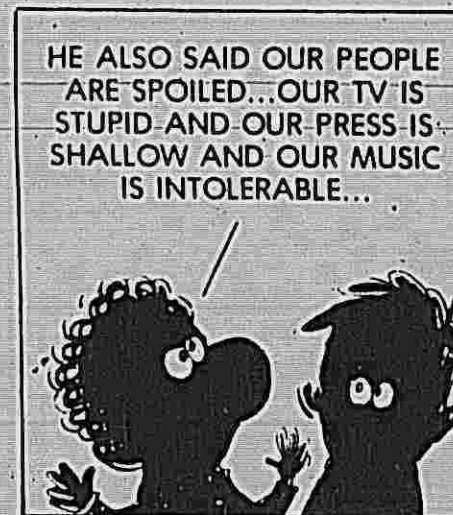

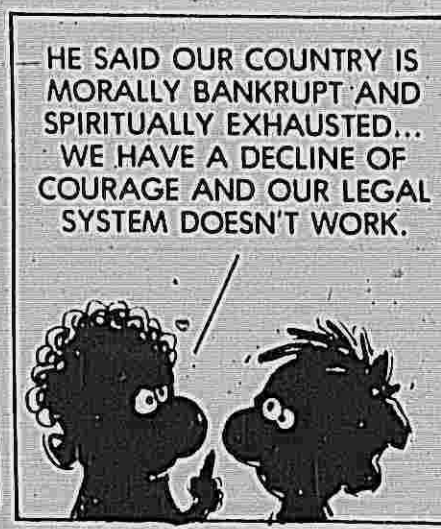

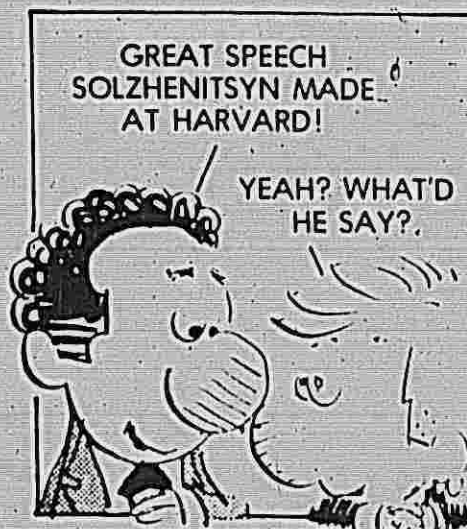

Commented Skelton: "I do believe Californians struck out at the wrong target because Proposition 13 affects only local government. The real culprit is Washington whose countless regulations imposed on local government have caused property tax bills to skyrocket."

"If Congress would adopt the Kemp-Roth legislation to reduce tax rates by one-third, Americans nationwide would applaud. The message is clear enough is enough."

2 men charged with theft of furniture

An Antioch man and a Chicago man have been charged with the theft last month of antique furniture from the home of Henry Paulson of Barrington at 42612 Addison Lane in unincorporated Antioch Township.

Ronald E. Poleck, 28, of 42610 Addison Lane, Antioch, and John J. Murnik, 31, of 2135 W. Bradley Place, Chicago have been charged with the burglary, Sheriff E.J. LaMagdeleine said.

Most of the furniture has been recovered and LaMagdeleine said detectives Kurt Proschwitz and Charles Fagan were responsible with uncovering the location of the furniture taken on May 15. The investigation by the two detectives also led to the arrest of the two men, the sheriff added.

The furniture was worth $50,000, Paulson said.

An investigator in the Chicago Police department aided Lake County detectives in recovering stolen furniture in Chicago and metropolitan Chicago area.

Spring Valley golf news

In each of the last three weeks there has been a hole-in-one at Spring Valley Country Club.

The latest was by Dennis (Brick) Halvorsen of Kenosha, who used a 5-iron on the 17th hole with the tee placed about 170 yards from the green.

Rick Gorski, former Antioch High School golf star, has had a couple of 31s for nine holes at Spring Valley this season.

The Spring Valley "Swingers" had a low gross tournament last week with Gloria Swigart winning in Class A and Trudy Anderson in Class B. Thelma Keulman chipped in from off the green on the seventh hole.

In their previous outing, the "Swingers" were led by Carol Effinger, Joyce Wagner and Marlene Smith, who had the fewest putts in Class A. Betty Hartnell was the Class B winner.

FIRST SIGN OF SUMMER - It's supposed to be spring until June 21 but Antioch residents and visitors know it's summer because Bill Georgeson's World Famous Hot Dog stand is now outside his World Famous Village Pub. Bill's sons, Scott (left) and Gregory, are making those great hot dogs on warm days on Antioch's Main Street. Bill says his brother, Julius, of Tifton, Ga., is trying to catch up with the fame the Georgesons have achieved in Antioch. Julius and his family have started a "world famous" hot dog stand in Tifton, with a sign pointing out that the franchise now includes Antioch, Tifton and Loon Lake.

Second-hand marriages are believed legitimate and binding by many ignorant people. Of course, such marriages have no existence in law. To marry second hand, you and your lady attend an actual wedding, and silently make the responses which the real bride and bridegroom make aloud. Second-hand marriages are popular on account of their cheapness - they save all fees. Their secrecy is another great advantage - none can find them out. In fact, everybody would probably marry second-hand, but for the unfortunate fact that the ceremony doesn't legally hold.

Caught in the act of dumping garbage on a vacant lot on north Main Street here Sunday night, a party of autoists were stopped by Officer Childers who handed the men back their precious bundle of fish heads, vegetable parings and a choice assortment of left-overs from their day's picnic. That would not have been so bad had the paper container not burst and the garbage went pell-mell into the driver's lap. Then he was told to get out of town.

Eight W.P.A. officials have been found guilty in Chicago of extorting money from W.P.A. workers and a court placed them upon probation. Could there be anything more contemptible than public officials grafting by extortion upon unfortunate people working under them on W.P.A. projects? And how assinine it becomes to have them released upon probation. The offenders knew better, they were engineers, assistant engineers, time-keepers, assistant superintendents and an accountant. Probation to them is like a slap upon the wrist and an admonishment not to do it again. It is now known whether any or all of them lost their jobs. If they did they will be back on them or some other public payroll before long. Deserving Democrats can do no wrong.

It drove the smaller truck through the intersection and into a northbound car driven by Cheryl Cox. The three vehicles wound up in a tangled mess of steel near a telephone pole on the southeast corner.

THE DRIVER OF THE dump truck, Edward Herchenbach, 18, of Libertyville, told deputies that he applied his brakes but his vehicle failed to stop.

2 from Wisconsin are arrested here

A man from Trevor, Wis., and a woman from Twin Lakes, Wis., were arrested early Tuesday morning by Antioch police officers for possession of marijuana and controlled substances, respectively.

Police Chief Chuck Miller said Officer Bill Kukla, assisted by Sgt. Charles Watkins, observed a suspicious car parked with two occupants on Anita Street near the industrial area at about 1:14 a.m. Upon approaching the car, Kukla smelled the strong odor of marijuana.

He arrested Addison J. Sherlin, 29, of Rte. 1, Trevor, for possessing one bag of marijuana and then found three more bags in the car. Further checking, the officers found the passenger, Donna Stanczyk, 27, of Twin Lakes, in possession of several pills which were found to be controlled substances.

For Your Information

Legislation to aid service station owners in the RTA district and to allow state audits of RTA books was given a vote of support last week on the Illinois Senate floor, a vote just big enough to save the measures from an early death.

Sen. Karl Berning, R-Deerfield, is co-sponsor of both bills.

Both measures were stalled in Democrat-dominated committees, but were released for consideration by the full Senate after the question of discharging the bills from committee was put to a vote on the Senate floor.

The service station bill passed by a vote of 30-7; the other proposal received a 34-8 vote.

"DEMOCRATS AREN'T HAPPY with the bills because they both attempt to redress some of the harm done to the suburbs by the Regional Transportation Authority. They want to protect Chicago's inordinately large share of RTA services," Berning said.

"Both bills are good ones, and obviously have enough support to be heard by the full Senate," he said.

Senate Bill 1408 authorizes the RTA Board to assess financial losses by service station owners in the RTA district due to the recently-imposed 5 percent gasoline tax. The owners would be allowed to recoup the losses suffered because motorists are buying lower-priced gasoline outside the district.

Senate Bill 1423 authorizes the state Auditor General to audit the collection and disposition of gasoline taxes.

"State law requires that such tax revenue be spent in the counties in which it is raised, but there has been no way to check whether the RTA has been doing this," Berning said.

All about town ...

By LINDA WALKER

Since I generally park my truck back in the village parking lot next to Barnstables, I've been able to watch every phase of work on the Park Avenue Mall.

As I've mentioned before, it was transformed from the Dodge-Service Center into a cleverly designed structure. In fact, even after looking at the artist's drawing, I couldn't grasp the change until every bit of work was completed.

Finally, after months of waiting, several shops have hung the "open" sign in their front windows.

THE FIRST to do so were Al and Louanne Jette, the new owners of The Gilded Cage. The attractive store carries a large selection of wallpaper, original art work and wall decor.

The Jettes bought the wallpaper business from Art and Betty Meyer, who are busy with their heads together studying bids for their new venture - Lake View Racquetball Club. More on that later.

This is a new step for Al and Louanne, and we wish them the best of luck. They certainly have a fine location with plenty of off-street parking.

THE OTHER NEW SHOP, Suforma Studio of Hair, will be opening tomorrow.

The owner, Tom Suforma, has been involved in professional hair grooming for seven years. Even though Tom strictly does men's hair styling, his shop is classified "Unisex" and will cater to both men and women.

I can't really tell you much about the decor. The last time I saw Tom and his workers they were up to their elbows in paint. I guess we're not the only business that meets deadlines.

Anyway, if all the plans turn into reality, Suforma Studio of Hair should be something else. We'll keep you informed.

AND LAST BUT certainly not least, The Little Gallery has its rear entrance open.

Sharon has moved her craft line back in the new addition and juggled the display cases around, leaving the center of the store vacant. It's sure amazing how that simple moving of furniture makes the store appear so much larger.

You've got to admit it - Antioch's first downtown mall is lookin' good.

ONE OF THE NICEST compliments I heard all week was from George Small of Georgetown Furniture.

George said, "I've been reading your paper for some time now and think it looks very professional."

Thanks a lot, George ... one thing is for sure, we try hard.

THIS SUNDAY IS a special day for all Dads throughout the country. I wish each and everyone of you a pleasant and happy Father's Day.

SCHOOL'S OUT. Drive carefully.

FACTS ON FATHERS

In parts of old Africa, the best gift a young man could give his father was the skin of his first lion. In pre-revolutionary China, a prized present for Pop was a longevity robe: a silken robe embroidered with the Chinese characters for "long life."

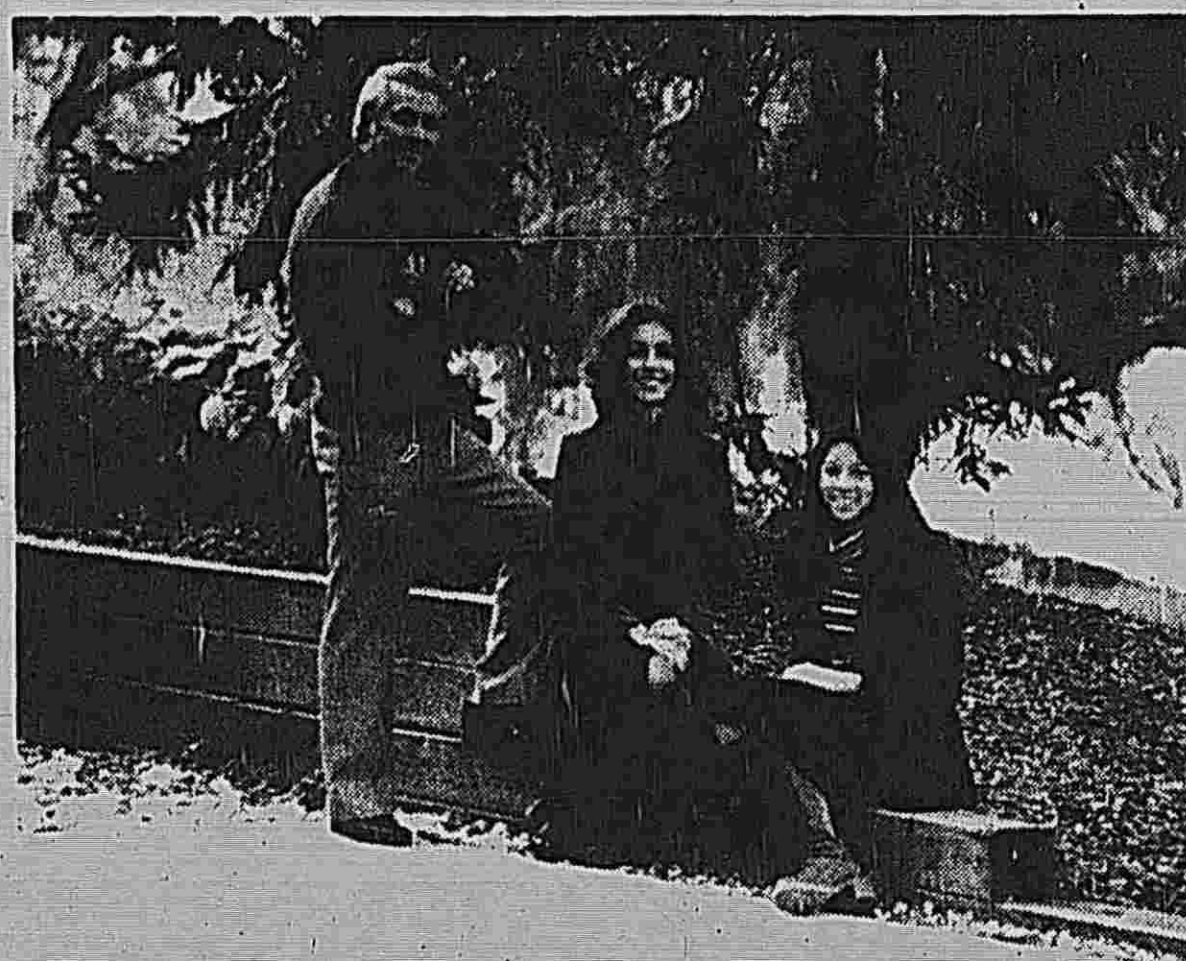

American Fathers are happy to receive a new razor, but years ago sons gave Dad a longevity robe or a lion skin.

Faire-goers can aid Heart Association

Opening day at King Richard's Faire, Saturday, July 1, has been declared Heart Day and visitors to the sixth annual event will have an opportunity to benefit themselves and the Heart Association of Lake County.

The Faire, located north of Waukegan on heavily wooded acreage, recreates life as it was in England some 400 years ago. Visitors are treated to a wide variety of medieval events in which they can either watch or participate.

In addition, those who attend on Heart Day can have a free blood pressure check by the "Royal Physicians" at the Heart Association booth. Literature regarding heart disease and stroke, diet and exercise will also be available at the booth.

Faire officials have announced that the Heart Association will receive $1 or more for every Heart Day coupon presented on July 1 at the Faire. The coupon, reproduced in the Antioch News, is worth a $1 donation for every adult ticket purchased by a family or group, so only one coupon can generate a sizable donation, according to Heart Association President Ronald R. Klimaitis, M.D.

"A family, or group of friends, buying several adult tickets on July 1 will be doing themselves and their neighbors a good turn by using the coupon," Dr. Klimaitis said.

"It costs a lot of money to fight cardiovascular disease - the nation's and Lake County's No. 1 killer. Every dollar will be used in that fight."

He points out that Faire organizers are making the donation, so tickets cost the same with or without the Heart Day coupon. However, coupons will not be available at the Faire site, nor will any donation be made to the Heart Association without coupons to support it.

"We appreciate the cooperation of the Antioch News in helping us reach as many persons as possible," Dr. Klimaitis added.

The Faire runs from 10:30 a.m. to 7 p.m. Take I-94 to Russell Road exit and follow the signs to the Faire site.

For further information regarding Heart Day and additional coupons, contact the Heart Association of Lake County, 229 South Green Bay Road, Waukegan, or phone 244-1210.

WINNER OF THE CONTEST to name a new lake was Josef Hunley (left) of Antioch. The Lake County Forest Preserve District sponsored its second annual fishing derby at the lake, the former Vulcan Pits in Newport Township. A highlight was the renaming of the pits as Sterling Lake. Hunley was the winner of a county-wide contest to find a new name.

No school nurse

this year the school nurse, Mrs. Patricia Kirkpatrick, was helped by a nurse's aid.

As the board currently stands, there will be no school nurse next year but a health records clerk instead, Meyer said. That person would help set up schedules with the county and keep records on such things as hearing and vision screenings and physical examinations.

Meyer, who is leaving the superintendent's post at the end of the month, said he felt that the board would not change its stance despite the parents' petitions.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM P. ENGQUIST

2 August weddings planned

A romance that began on the campus of Illinois State University will culminate in marriage for Amy Elizabeth Ploss and Peter John James.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Ploss of Lake Villa and the son of former Antioch residents, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald James of Memphis, Tenn., will exchange vows in the Millburn Congregational Church of Christ in mid-August.

The couple will make their home in Normal, Ill., where the bride-elect is majoring in junior high school education and her fiancé is an accounting major.

AN AUGUST wedding in St. Mark's Lutheran Church in Lindenhurst is planned by Cynthia Kay Young and Michael Clayton Deichert. The couple's engagement has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce G. Young of Lake Villa.

Miss Young, who attended the College of Lake County in Grayslake, is a dental assistant for Dr. John Boarini of Antioch.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Deichert of Crawford, Neb., is stationed at Great Lakes where he is a dental technician in the U.S. Navy.

After Deichert's tour of duty is completed, the couple will make their home in Nebraska where he plans to enroll in the University of Nebraska dental school.

PLAN OPEN HOUSE SATURDAY - The Rev. and Mrs. Lauren Messersmith, who were married June 17, 1928 in Stockville, Nebr., will have a "golden wedding" open house at the Millburn Church Saturday from 2 to 6 p.m. They came to Millburn in October of 1942, where he served the Millburn Congregational Church for 31 years, retiring in October, 1973. They now live in Leisure Village, Fox Lake. Mrs. Messersmith, the former Marguerite Davis, taught at schools that included Howe in Zion, Oakland in Antioch and Woodland at Wildwood. Friends are invited to the open house but "no gifts, please," said Rev. Messersmith.

WHY IS THE WEDDING RING WORN ON THE THIRD FINGER OF THE LEFT HAND?

Diana Rentner becomes Mrs. William Engquist

On April 29 Pastor Philip Laurin united in marriage Diane Lynn Rentner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Rentner, Antioch, and William G. Engquist, son of M-Sgt. and Mrs. William P. Engquist, Ft. Sheridan.

The bride wore a dress of silk organza over taffeta with an empire waist and matching lace on the skirt and chapel train. She was escorted down the aisle of St. Stephen Lutheran Church by her father.

Diana made the dotted swiss dresses worn by her sister, Debbie, maid of honor; Lori Williams, bridesmaid, and Kathy Hoff, flower girl.

Serving William as best man was his brother, Rickie Cordell, with Bill Rentner as usher and Michael Engquist as ring bearer.

Following a church reception the couple honeymooned in North Carolina and are now at home at Ft. Sheridan where William serves with the U.S. Army.

Diana graduated from Antioch High School and her husband from Bolton High School, Alexandria, La.

THE BY VIRGINIA TRUAX
HOME GAME

BULK BUYING -- Apples by the bushel are a better buy. And here's how to keep them fresh and edible. Line the sides and bottom of a clean trash can with several layers of newspaper. Place an open jar of water inside, add the apples and store in a cool place.

CREEPY CRAWLERS -- Next time you hike in the country, pick up a few hedge apples to bring home. It is said that placing one under the sink will ward off roaches -- even after it turns brown!

ONE MORE TIME -- Don't throw out those stale rolls! Freshen them up by wrapping in a damp towel overnight in your refrigerator. At dinner time, remove the towel and reheat rolls slowly in a low oven.

SOUFFLED CRACKERS -- Here's a tasty cocktail biscuit you can make: Soak plain soda crackers in ice water for a few minutes, lift onto a cookie sheet and cover with melted butter. Bake in a 400-degree oven until puffed and brown. For added flavor, sprinkle lightly with salt, pepper, garlic powder and oregano before baking.

VARIATION ON A THEME -- If your lunch toters want only peanut butter sandwiches, vary it a bit by mixing bacon bits, celery and honey in with the peanut butter. A filling sandwich filling.

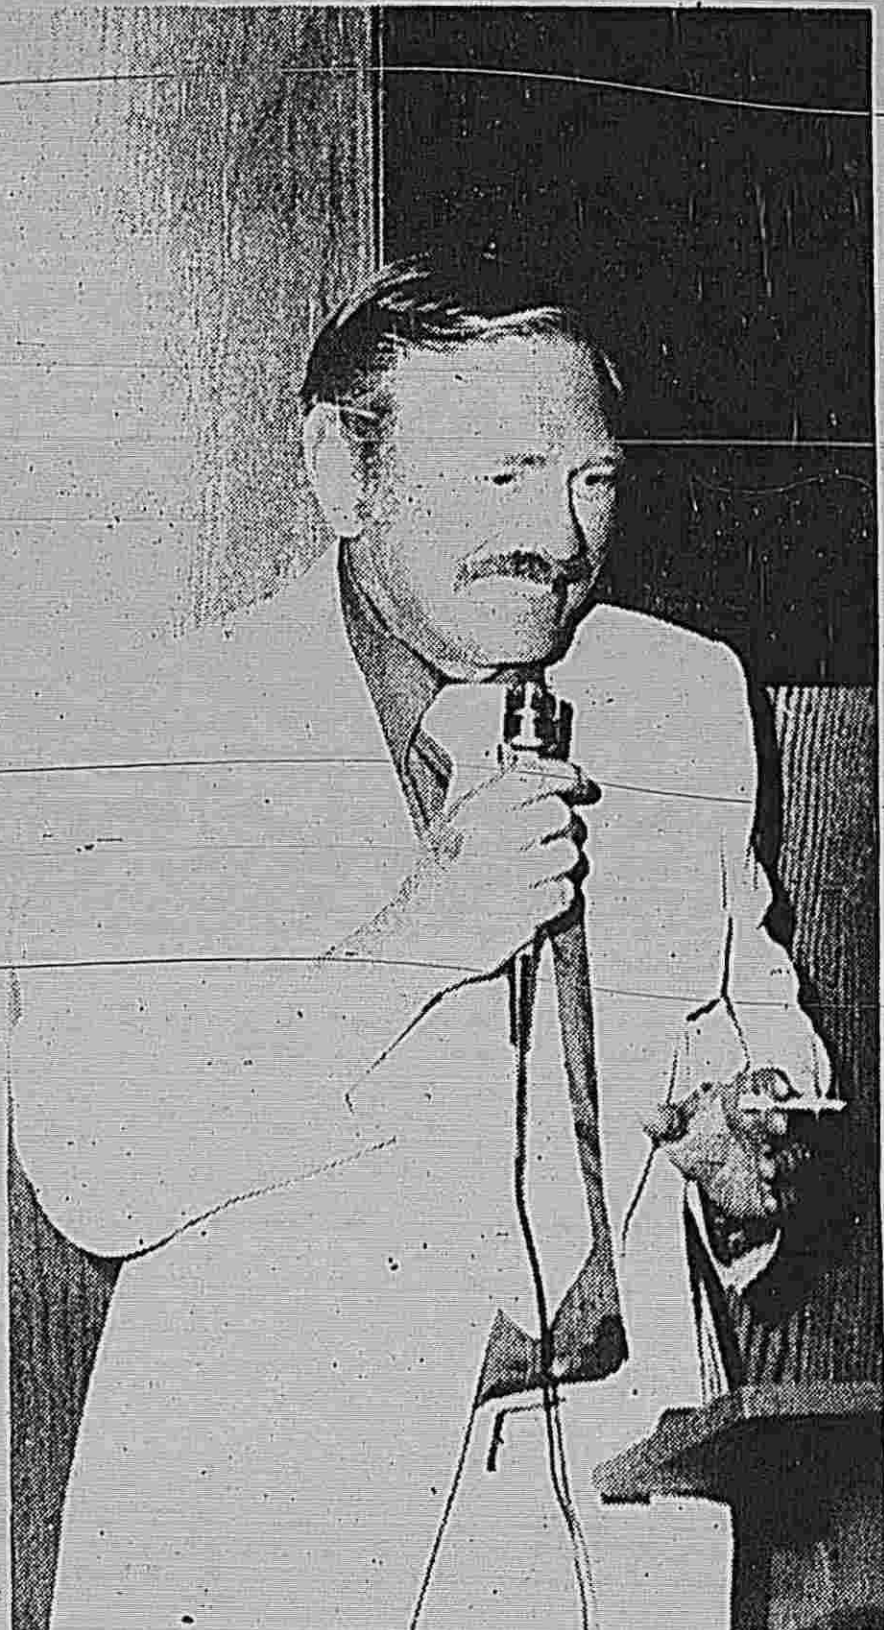

GEOGRAPHY LESSON -- An ingenious cover for your child's schoolbooks is a road map that you can get at a service station. After the books are covered, use clear shellac to give them a tougher, longer-lasting finish.

FILM FLUSHER -- Remove the built-up film in the bottom of a double boiler by adding 2 tablespoons vinegar and letting boil a short time.

EGGSACTLY -- A handy fact to keep in the back of your mind -- two egg yolks plus one tablespoon of water can be substituted for one whole egg.

TIME SAVER -- A forgetful or harried cook can use this quick defrosting method for emergencies. Unwrap frozen meat, place on baking pan and put in oven heated to 150-175 degrees F. until almost thawed.

Antioch GOP installs new officers

THE NEW PRESIDENT of the Antioch Township Republican Club is Frank C. Johnson. He replaces Frank Benes. Mr. Johnson was installed at last Saturday night's dinner at Antioch Bowl's new banquet room.

Frank C. Johnson was installed last Saturday night as president of the Antioch Township Republican Club.

Mr. Johnson replaces the outgoing president, Frank Benes.

The installation took place at a dinner-dance in Antioch Bowl's new banquet room.

Master of ceremonies Jerry Murphy announced that the Republican Men's Club and its auxiliary are being combined into a single organization. Thelma Anderson was outgoing president of the women's club.

Thelma's husband, ElRoy, received the club's annual ELLA-phant award. In making the presentation William E. Brook said:

"ElRoy has been one of the persons most concerned with the advancement of the Republican Party in this area. If ever I saw a team that could be called Mr. and Mrs. Republican, it's Thelma and ElRoy."

Many Lake County and local officials and politicians were introduced by Murphy, the new second vice-president of the club. Genevieve Benes is first vice-president.

The installation of officers was made by George Kangas, Lake County Republican chairman.

Three prizes were given. Stephanie Sulthin, former Lake County circuit court clerk, won a television set; Mary Ellen Gorley a home stereo system and Phil Vos a $100 savings bond.

THE ELLA-PHANT AWARD, the township Republican club's annual recognition for outstanding service, was given to ElRoy Anderson. But he couldn't be there Saturday night so his wife, Thelma, accepted the award from William E. Brook.

Any 100-year olds?

Lake County Forest Preserve District officials are anxious to hear from, or even about, anyone in the county who will be 100 years of age, or older, during 1978.

County Board Representative Matthew Miholic and Commissioner Helen Belmont Amendola have been appointed co-chairmen for this year's Lake County senior citizens recognition day.

They said the "100-year-olds" will receive special recognition at the county event and they want a complete list of names.

"Please contact Jane Bittner or Greg Meyer at the Lake County Forest Preserve District office, 367-6640," said Miholic.

AMONG THE OFFICERS sworn in at last Saturday night's Antioch Township Republican Club dinner were (from left) Henry Käht, corresponding secretary; Dorothy Offenstroer, recording secretary; Jerry Murphy, second vice-president, and Lillian Golonka, treasurer. Genevieve Benes is first vice-president and Elvira Schuemann, sergeant at arms.

Well, girls, summer is here again and that blonde floozie is back in town. Better watch your husbands.

How did Woody Allen put it? "Everything your mother said is good for you, is bad for you ... red meat, milk and college"

RECEIVED A NICE NOTE from our good pal Frances Lubeno, who now lives in Hayward, Wis. Remember when Frances worked with the gals at Reeves Drug Store?

She bought another year's subscription to the Antioch News and was nice enough to write:

Hope Fran drops in next time she's in town.

IF YOU HAVEN'T SEEN "Harvey," PM&L Theatre's current comedy, Friday and Saturday nights are your last chances. Be sure to see the cast photo on page 12.

John Rice of the Waukegan News-Sun reviewed the play and these were some of his observations:

"Director Don Beveroth kept the pace moving. He cast his play quite well and allowed the humor to evolve, letting the lines speak for themselves.

"As Elwood P. Dowd, the man who talks to Harvey, Tom Hausman gives the most satisfying performance. His greatest asset in playing this role is his obliviousness to the comedy of what is happening around him. Yvonne Dyer as Elwood's sister Veta is appropriately fussy, while Dena Fabry as niece Myrtle May is appropriately on the make."

GOOD PSYCHOLOGY

Since many of us don't worry about what we can't see, we tend to let a hazy or cloudy day deceive us into believing we can't get sunburned. Actually, these atmospheric conditions merely scatter the sun's rays and can produce a burn.

A good way to guard against a false sense of protection is to apply a sunscreen like Sundown brand that stays on for hours, even when you are in and out of the water. Johnson & Johnson developed it to screen out damaging rays while allowing a gradual tan.

The oldest known murals on man-made walls have been found in southern Turkey. They date back to 5500 B.C.

Nominations available for art awards

Nomination forms are now available from the Illinois Arts Council for the first annual Governor's Awards for the Arts in Illinois, the highest honor the state can bestow in the arts.

All nominations for the awards must be on the official forms, which may be obtained by writing the Illinois Arts Council, 111 N. Wabash, Chicago, IL 60602 or by calling (312) 435-6750.

Completed nomination forms must be returned to the IAC offices by July 25, 1978. A maximum of ten awards will be presented to honor service to the cultural life of the state.

Individuals, communities, organizations or corporations in Illinois which have made significant contributions to the arts in the state of Illinois, or to a single Illinois community or area, are eligible to receive awards.

The awards will not be given to recognize single acts by individuals or organizations, or to judge individual artistic merit, but rather to recognize major efforts on behalf of the arts over a significant period of time.

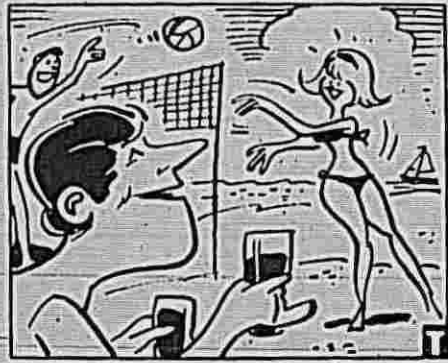

A statewide panel will review the nominations, and Governor James Thompson will present the awards at a special event in September, 1978.

For further information on the Governor's Awards program, contact Marianne Coplan, Public Information Officer, (312) 435-6754.

RELAXATION ODDITIES-HELPFUL TIPS

By Joy Miller

A game that's beginning to shoot up in popularity is volleyball. A particularly American game, it was invented by a Massachusetts YWCA instructor in 1895. It got its name because his players "volleyed" the ball over the net.

Popular in thousands of schools and colleges in the United States, we now see it played more and more on beaches between swimmers.

A good tip when organizing a beach volleyball game is not to place all your tall men in one row, as players rotate after the serve. Since you have three chances to get the ball over, always try and pass the ball to a net man so he can spike it over the net for a point.

St. Peter's plans big rummage sale

St. Peter's Women's Club will hold its 19th annual rummage sale on Saturday, June 24, from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. in the parish social center.

Women's children's and men's clothing and miscellaneous household items will be available.

As in past years, the better items of clothing will be featured in the French Room. Betty Davis will model some of the more fashionable selections from 9 a.m. until noon.

Donations will be accepted for the sale beginning today. Volunteers are needed to work on June 24: Call Loretta Schiffmann, 395-5921, or Marge McKinney, (414) 862-2749 to volunteer some of your time.

ON SUNDAY, July 2, St. Peter's will be represented in the sawmill dedication parade by members of various parish organizations. If you would like to participate, contact the rectory and leave your name and phone number.

Committees will be forming soon for St. Peter's 50th annual salad bar luncheon to be held Aug. 19. Chairman Betty Hope said the event began as the August card and dessert party and, in the first two or three years, it was held at the larger homes of people in the area.

It is said that the old Channel Lake pavilion also was the site of the event prior to the completion of the present church building.

FUNDS RAISED at these and other events throughout the year are used to purchase special equipment and supplies needed in St. Peter's school, and to assist in the extraordinary needs of the parish such as new vestments and the remodeling of the church hall.

Future funds will be needed to replace broken sidewalks around the rectory, replace the part of the school building roof that is leaking badly, and to carpet the aisles and inside steps of the church.

The horseshoe crab is thought to be virtually unchanged from its form 300 million years ago.

CIVUS OPTIMUS (SUPERIOR CITIZEN) awards are being given on Friday nights by John J. Diviak, owner of Mr. D's Playmore Resort on Channel lake. Mr. Diviak (center) is shown making a presentation to Betty and John Sutcliffe. "They are the type of people who go way out of their way to do things for others," he said. The Sutcliffes received a plaque and dinner for two.

About 60 Antioch residents witnessed the ground-breaking of the new Fire-Safety building on Turner Drive Monday evening.

Construction should begin sometime next week.

Village officials who helped break ground included Mayor Mike Haley, Dave Heath, captain of the rescue squad, Russell Lasco, president of the first fire protection district, and Edgar Simonsen, honorary retired chief of the fire department.

Fire Chief Tod Maplethorpe gave a presentation on the history of the Fire-Safety building, from its initial conception to when the bond issues were passed and to its present state.

Mayor Haley also said a few words and the contractors and architect for the building were introduced. Lasco also gave a short speech.

Others in attendance were the representatives of the financial institutions that purchased the bonds, fire district trustees and members of the village board.

Maplethorpe said construction of the building should be completed in 10 months, or by next February or March.

"We're really pleased with how things are moving on the building and that things are going as well as they are," he added.

The first opera in history is purported to be Dafne by Jacopo Peri. Unfortunately, none of the music survives.

graduates, to tour the campus and to dedicate the new dining facility, Wrigley Hall.

He said the school's structure had changed from caring for homeless and orphaned Chicago youth when Richmond attended to the present system of teaching students ages 10 to 18, with emotional or learning problems.

Richmond toured the campus with his wife, Rhee. Allendale officials and reporters as students showed the group around various cottages and classrooms, some the doctor was familiar with and some recently constructed.

Richmond, who was a professor of child psychiatry and human development at the Harvard Medical School before his appointment in Washington, said he attended Allendale from 1927 to 1930.

ONE OF THE MOST important influences on him at that time was the school's founder and director, Edward Bradley, who was "very wise. He knew a lot about children. He was self-taught (in the child development area) and was resourceful and compassionate," he explained.

One system, that of earning "merits" (now termed credits) for good behavior is still in operation, he noticed. However, those who were given enough de-merits for misbehaving in his time were sent to a place the boys called "Siberia."

He laughed, and added, "I was never in 'Siberia' my whole time there."

He said his days spent at Allendale gave him the motivation to work with children and he spent most of his life devoted to that area. Richmond said he was interested in what could be done in a professional career working with medicine and studying children's behavior.

RICHMOND WENT ON to high school in Chicago after graduating from Allendale. He then attended the University of Illinois where he met his wife, and earned a bachelor's degree in 1937.

He was awarded an M.S. degree two years later in physiology from the U. of I. and then earned an M.D. degree from the same school.

He served as a flight surgeon with the Air Force during World War II and afterwards joined the faculty of the University of Illinois and rose to the ranks of professor in 1950.

He then traveled to Syracuse and for almost 20 years served as chairman of the department of pediatrics at the State University of New York, where he was dean of the medical faculty and engaged in research in early childhood development, preventive medicine and family child health. At Syracuse he also was appointed the first director of the national Head Start program in 1965.

He left Syracuse in 1971 to teach at Harvard Medical School. Richmond has also served as the vice chairman of the Council of the Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences, and on the board of directors of the Foundation for Child Development in New York City.

SOME OF HIS honors included the C. Anderson Aldrich award for research in child development, the Parents Magazine award for "outstanding service to children," and the John F. Kennedy Memorial Lectureship at Georgetown University Medical Center.

He was nominated June 9, 1977, by President Carter for his position as assistant secretary for health in the department of health, education and welfare (HEW) and surgeon general.

His position entails directing such programs as the Public Health Service, including the alcohol, drug abuse and mental health administration and the center for disease control.

WHEN ASKED WHAT his main priorities as surgeon general were, he replied that they included "extending health services to unserved and underserved populations, improving efforts against disease through increased immunization clinics, non-smoking campaigns and providing more information on proper nutrition."

He said Americans have begun to feel "too secure about infectious diseases" and added he would like to provide immunization for at least 90 percent of the nation's children because presently only the more affluent communities have been inoculated against disease.

Regarding his relationship with HEW Secretary Joseph A. Califano Jr., Richmond said Califano has "values and priorities consistent with mine" and added that he supported the secretary's ideas and programs.

HE MENTIONED SOME of the statistics and directions he has dealt with in one specific program, he is very involved with, the non-smoking campaign.

In 1964, when the first surgeon general's report was first issued to reduce smoking for health reasons, 54 percent of the adult male population then smoked regularly. He said that percentage has now dropped to 38 percent.

"Smoking is very much related to the percentage of heart attacks," he continued. "Improved diets and exercise have helped also. The relative incidence of heart attack in 1964 was well over one million and now is 870,000."

Richmond added that in a recent study conducted by Boston University it was found that females over 50 years old have 10 times as great a chance for a heart attack if they smoke.

Also, he said women who smoke have not increased in percentage but that it still is a matter of concern because the percentage has not gone down since 1964.

TEENAGERS, HE NOTED, were also smoking now at a higher percentage than ever before.

Three directions the department of HEW is taking to reduce smoking include educating and informing the public on the harmful effects, reducing tobacco subsidies and increasing excise taxes, he said.

Aside from his professional dealings, Richmond also has a full personal life and a family very involved in the medical field.

Mrs. Richmond said she has two living sons, Barry, 35, and Charles, 33. Barry lives near his parents in Washington with his wife and three sons and is a pediatric neurologist. His wife is a pediatrician also.

Charles and his wife and son live in Indianapolis where he is an administrator for the hospital at the University of Indiana and his wife is a nurse.

Julius B. Richmond, surgeon general and secretary of health, listens to a 1942 Allendale graduate and now a member of the board of trustees, as he tours the Lake

Villa campus before giving a commencement address for graduation ceremonies at his alma mater. At the right is Mrs. Rhee Richmond.

Village begins its summer programs

The Antioch Parks and Recreation department opened its girls softball season Sunday. In the junior league M.W. Heath and Son defeated the Firefighters' team 23-16.

In the senior league the State Bank won 18-10 over Classic Carpentry.

SUMMER DAY CAMP for children started Monday. Highlights of the week include today's bike rodeo, sponsored in cooperation with the State Bank of Antioch. Next week, on Tuesday, there will be a visit from Cricket the Clown, and on Friday July 23, a field trip to the Milwaukee zoo.

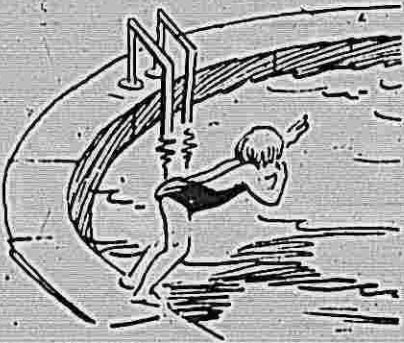

Along with the special activities, games and art projects are planned each day.

Swim lessons began Monday, too. Tennis lessons start next Monday and Tuesday.

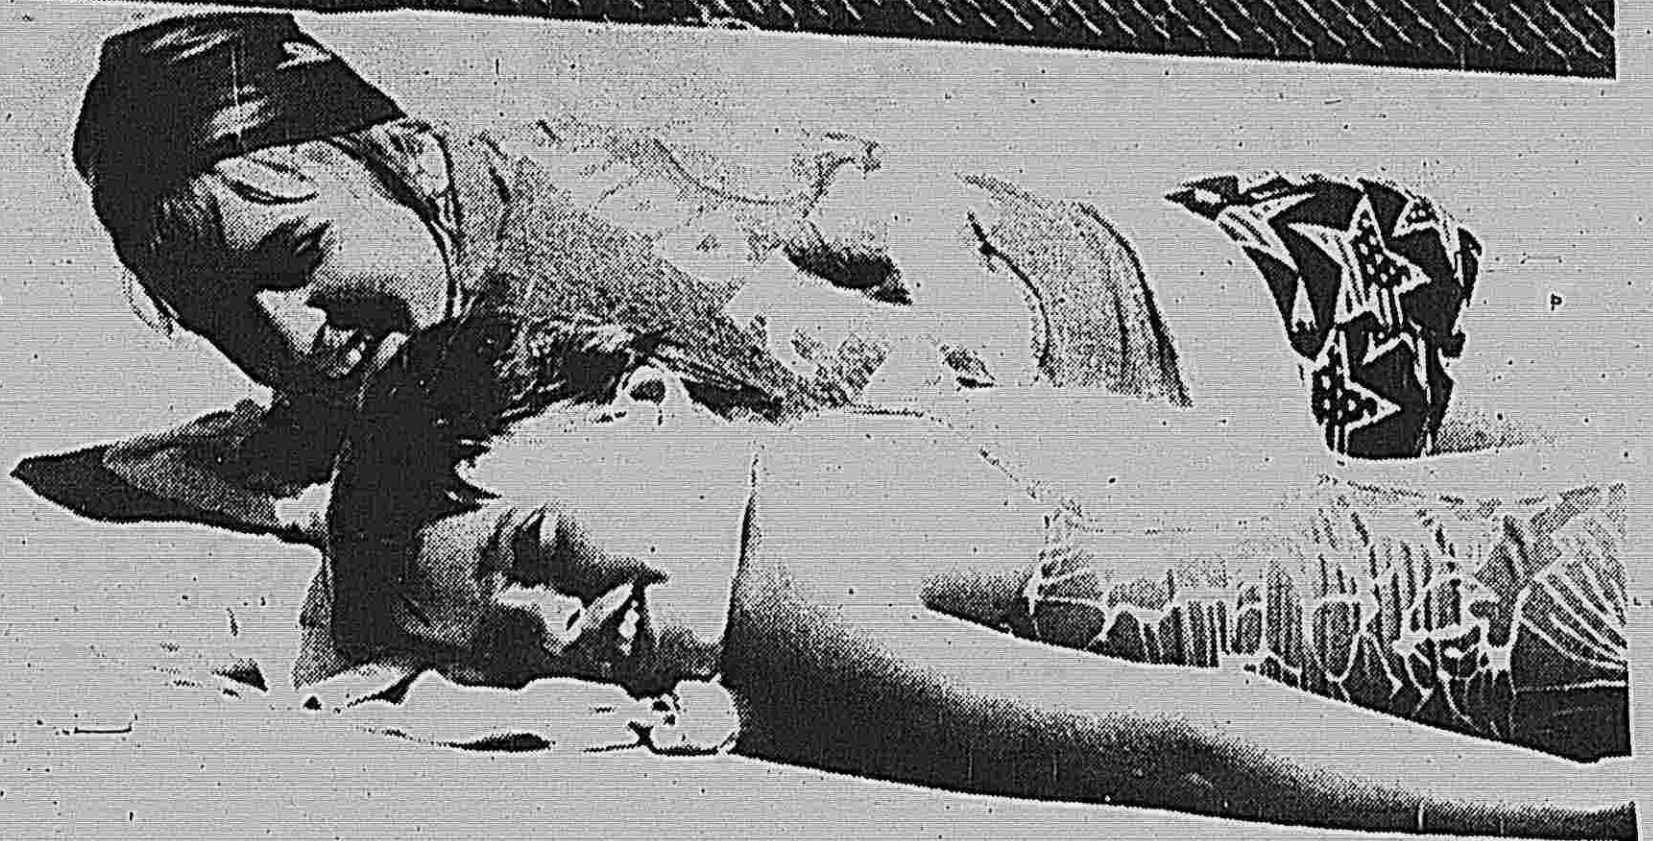

Applications for all programs are still available at the village hall.

SET FOR THE START of swimming season, lifeguards at the Antioch Aqua Center, Jack Fields, 17, and Kit Kakacek, 21, enjoyed a brief break Saturday.

WARMING UP after a swim in the Aqua Center pool Saturday afternoon were Patty Fields, 13 and Kim White, 6. The girls agreed that although the water was warm the brisk winds outside were too chilly for them.

He starts each day 'on the right foot'

By SUE NASENBENY

At 5:30 every morning, when you and I and everybody else are peacefully far away in slumberland, Joe Rush, 45, is out on the roads of Antioch jogging four miles, rain or shine.

Only a crazyman would do this, you say? Rush admitted that he does get a few weird looks sometimes from people who are going to work, and that one man who was always leaving Roland's Bakery with a doughnut in his hand used to yell at him as he ran by.

But Rush insists that the early morning is one of the most peaceful times of the day. Getting up before the sun has quite risen and the birds are still in bed can give you a special feeling, a oneness with the world. The air is crisp and cool and the world is still quiet.

RUSH IS A "MORNING PERSON" and said in order to run that time of day, "you have to enjoy the solitude. It's one of the most mind-relaxing things you can do, when I can organize my day's activities."

He said most of his great ideas for working (he owns a Photography studio on Cheri Lane) come from running and that he is not alone in this experience.

"It's a phenomena noted by a number of people," Rush said.

Why does he run every day, even on weekends?

"I run for my health, it's a personal thing," he explained. Rush said he started running 17 years ago and has built up to four miles a day which takes him less than half an hour. He travels a circular route, from his home to Rittenhouse and Embree Lumber on Depot Street, down to Rte. 173, to Rte. 59 and then back home.

He said speed and distance have little bearing on his running. "I don't keep a time on myself because then it ceases to be fun."

THE JOGGER SAID running and jogging are "virtually synonymous terms. What may be running for one person may be jogging for another." Doctors have recommended 20 minutes of jogging about three times per week in order to be effective, he said, but it must be something that is done gradually.

"You have to make jogging part of your lifestyle to be effective," Rush continued. "You have to fit it into your normal, everyday schedule, otherwise it will become inconvenient and you'll put it aside."

He noted that not many other people he knew of rose that early for a daily jog, but that he has seen men and women run in the evening right before supertime.

FOR THOSE OF US who are worried that running would cause us to have a voracious appetite afterwards, Rush assuredly pointed out that running tends to decrease appetite. Anyone doubting this should take a few laps around the block and then try stuffing down a double hamburger.

Rush recommended a slow start for anyone considering running regularly. "A very good policy to follow is - walk a (telephone) pole, run a pole. The secret to sticking to it is starting slow, not fast."

Potential joggers should first walk the whole distance they would like to run, maybe a mile, and then follow the "pole" idea the next day after stretching out for a few minutes.

Rush said he knew instances where runners have started too fast, became fatigued easily or pulled muscles, and then had to quit running. He said a good measure to run by is to never run faster than you could carry on a conversation.

For those who do not want to or cannot run, he said walking is just as healthy if done at a brisk pace. It tones muscles and expands the cardio-vascular system, decreasing the chance of a heart attack.

WAS RUSH ALWAYS the trim and healthy man he is now?

"No," he laughed. "When I was about 23 my work required no physical activity. I realized (he was a bit overweight at the time) that the rest of my life I might turn to solid jello. I was feeling miserable so I started running."

He also put himself on a strict diet and took supplemental food, or vitamins, which he said was a personal decision.

Rush noted that running has become a sort of national pastime which he totally supports. "It makes me feel better. If I don't run one day for some reason, I don't feel as good. It gets me going for the day."

Some people who work all day in a job that requires little physical activity may feel exhausted in the evening, but Rush advised that running after work would make them feel less tired and more energetic throughout the week.

PEOPLE OF ALL AGES run, he added: A man in his 70s ran a 13 mile half-marathon with him recently in Grantwood Park. And they run in all sorts of weather. When it's raining Rush said he runs, comes home, takes a shower and feels fine.

But these "crazies" seen running around town and past homes at all hours of the day may not be as zany as we think.

Maybe they like the feel of asphalt underfoot as their running shoes pound the pavement. Maybe they like the surprised looks or the friendly waves people give them on their daily trek.

But they probably like best the feeling of being one of the healthiest people around.

JOE RUSH TAKES an early morning run through Antioch. He travels about four miles daily and said the run gives him time to think and sort out his schedule for the day.

3 young bowlers in state finals

Seventeen youth bowlers from Antioch Lanes participated in the semifinal round of the YBA singles tournament at Striker Lanes in Buffalo Grove.

Bowlers advancing to the state finals will bowl at Welcome Lanes in DeKalb Saturday.

Terry West, Kelly Stender and Jeff Miller will represent Antioch Bowl in that event.

Last year Jim Weber represented Antioch in the state finals.

In the prep boys division this year Terry had a 659 series and placed second out of 50 entries. Mike Wicinski placed seventh and Mark West 10th.

In the prep girls, Antioch didn't have anyone who qualified for the finals but Kim Stender finished sixth with 606 out of 25 entries.

Jeff Miller had a 656 series and finished second with 32 entries in the junior division. Charles Domeracki was seventh with a 615.

Representing Antioch in the junior girls division will be Kelly Stender who was first with 600. Chris Veltum finished in eighth place with a 552.

In the major boys division, Richard Nelson was second with a 657 and Charles Rogers 12th with 501.

ANTIOCH BOWL SEASON CHAMPIONS received their awards from the lanes' co-owner Joe Sterbenz (center). At left is Woody Litchford, who won the bowling lanes' eighth annual House Elimination tournament over 127 other men. Nancy Hendzel won a silver tray for placing first in a field of 96 women.

Increased federal aid to help CLC students

Due to a substantial increase in federal assistance, the College of Lake County (CLC) will have more money to help more students go to school during the coming year.

Samuel Mazman, director of financial aid and placement at CLC, said the monetary award is from the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW). The federal grant totals nearly $200,000 and represents an increase of almost 39 percent over last year's HEW award to the College.

The funds will help support two existing federal programs at CLC: College Work Study and Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants.

In the College Work Study Program, students may earn a part of their education expenses by working an average of 20 hours per week on the CLC campus. Every effort is made to have the job relate to the student's academic program or interests, Mazman said.

Starting salaries are $2.65 per hour and these work-study jobs are scheduled around the student's class schedule.

Opportunity grants, both initial and continuing, are awarded on the basis of exceptional financial need. Awards range from $200 to a maximum of one-half of the student's computed need, he said. Recipients must be enrolled at least half-time at the College.

Mazman said, "We are pleased with the growth in these programs as service to our students will be substantially increased."

Additional information about financial assistance at CLC is available from the Financial Aid Office at 223-6601, ext. 296.

An old idea is to build up longevity. In ancient China, a son often showed respect for his father by making him a silk robe with the Chinese characters for "long life" embroidered on it. This practice was believed to extend the father's life span because the robe was made by a person who himself probably had many more years to live.

June 30 and July 1-2 will be the second weekend of speed. The super-modifieds will have a 30-lap mid-season championship on Friday. Saturday, the late models run the Independence Twin-25's along with a Powder Puff race, and Sunday is McClure's Garage and Car Wash Twin-State 25's for super-modifieds. Double-championship points will be awarded Saturday and Sunday, July 1-2.

Gates open at 6 p.m. with time trials at 7 and racing at 8. The track is just east of Rt. 41 on Washington St. The track information and weather phone is (312) 662-8200.

DEFENDING LATE MODEL champion Don Collins of Antioch won an abbreviated 25-lap feature on Saturday at the Speedway. The race was re-checked after 24 laps due to an accident in turn one involving trophy dash winner Chuck Bostick and Antioch's Tom Homan.

Collins worked his way through the pack until he overtook Bostick on lap 19. Bostick and Homan were fighting for the runnerup spot when the accident happened. Neither driver was injured. Collins, who won the fast heat over George Fetzner by using the high groove, was followed by fast qualifier Frank Slabenak, Ron Shearer and Danny Brown in the feature race.

Frank Dowell won the other heat.

Band's trip was fun, educational

By BONNIE BORLA-

Last week, on Tuesday, the Antioch Grade School senior band left for Springfield. Our first stop was the Dickson Mounds Museum. First we ate a sack lunch and then toured the museum. From there we drove to Springfield where we visited Lincoln's Tomb.

Then we arrived at the Holiday Inn East. After getting freshened up and fed, the students had free time until 10 p.m. Many swam in the beautiful indoor heated pool or played games that surrounded the poolside.

Last Wednesday we toured Lincoln's home in the morning, then at noon we played in the rotunda of the capitol.

Between the ERA demonstrations and TV cameras the band put on a fine concert.

Rep. Betty Lou Reed was on hand to listen to the band and help with questions. She said this was the first time she knew of that the Antioch Grade School band played at the capitol.

Rep. Donald Deuster was also there. We are glad they gave up their valuable time to listen to our band. After the concert the band had its picture taken on the steps of the capitol. After lunch we toured the capitol and later the state museum.

ON THURSDAY WE PACKED up and drove to the University of Illinois. We ate lunch at the Illini Union, then toured the campus and the Krannert Art Museum. Then we checked into a motel and at 7 p.m. the band put on a concert at Crystal Lake Park. Later we treated all the students to pizza.

On Friday we packed up for home. On the way we stopped and toured Kathryn Beich Candy Co. I don't know of anyone who didn't enjoy that tour. Everyone got free candy.

WE ARRIVED HOME around 7:15 p.m. I think everyone was really tired. I know the chaperones felt like they had aged 100 years.

The chaperones were Elsie Quedenfeld, Gene Noethling, Nancy Zeien, Pat Schintgen, Suzanne Fries, Jim Quedenfeld, Larry Wagner, Wayne Ochwat and the writer.

I would like to say to the students that someday you will be in our shoes and you will see what chaperones must go through and the responsibility that is on their shoulders.

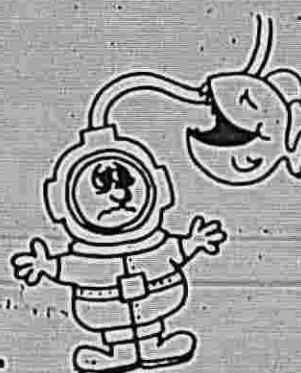

We hope all the band students enjoyed themselves. It is a hard job trying to please 70 students at once. The trip was meant to be educational and fun.

THE STUDENTS WERE well behaved most of the time. I know tears came to some chaperones' eyes when the band played at the capitol. We were all very proud of them.

I would like to thank all the other band parents who worked hard planning this trip. Especially Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fries and Mrs. Golonka who put in many hours of work but could not go due to other obligations.

PEOPLE STOP AND STARE at the toy monkey on the trapeze in the window of the new BJ's Sports Center. He's a clever little rascal and was given to BJ's by John Teresi.

TODAY IS SUE NASENBENY'S birthday so she'll probably get a phone call from New York. Erlene Pearce celebrates her birthday next Sunday and, just so she gets a long, long distance call, I think I'll fly to Hawaii.

Yesterday was birthday time for Joe Bakshis, of EJ's Camera store, and it also was the 25th wedding anniversary of Joe and Barbara Rush. Wonderful!

We're a little late with other birthday wishes - Rosline Scheske and Dave Ziekus had birthdays last Wednesday. Gail Flister last Friday and Lynn O'Meara last Saturday.

Gail and Lynn both work at Rittenhouse & Embree Co., and their sweet, kind, generous, lovely boss, Bud, treated them to lunch and roses from his garden.

I CAN'T WAIT until this weekend. Our staff is planning a little outing - we've been planning it for three years. We are having the usual picnic activities - cookout, volleyball, baseball and swimming.

What makes our picnic so special you ask? Our beloved fearless leader, Jerry Pfarr, is in charge of entertainment - in fact, he is the entertainment.

First, he is going to impress us with trick golf shots. Then for the big splash - he is going to balance himself on a big innertube in a 4 ft. deep swimming pool. That should be a sight to behold!!

I'll let you know next week how he did - if he survives! SPLASH!!!!

HAPPENINGS

THE AMERICAN Naprapathic Association will hold its 69th annual convention at the Burlington Resort Hotel in Burlington, Wis. on June 22, 23 and 24. Ford A. Roberts, D.N., president of the association said:

"Naprathapy is a science which uses manipulation of the connective tissue to release nerve irritating points of tension in the spine and dietary measures to improve body chemistry, both specifically designed to facilitate the inherent, recuperative and regenerative forces of the human body."

The convention will begin with registration on Thursday morning, June 22. On Thursday afternoon and all day Friday and Saturday there will be educational sessions with lectures and demonstrations by naprapaths and others.

You'll probably sleep a lot better, some psychologists say, if you furnish your bedroom in soothing colors. Traditional blues and greens are still used, but earth tones, such as rust and brown, may prove just as relaxing.

Christian Scientists at Boston meeting

The Murray Conzelman family of Wadsworth are local Christian Scientist who attended the 83rd annual meeting of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass. last week.

They were told to put aside "busywork, organizational mechanics, and zeal for media exposure."

"The need today," said the Christian Science board of directors in its message to the denomination's global membership, "is for more healing, more spirituality, meekness and humility."

In a strongly-worded statement, the directors warned against "powerful mental cross-currents at work against religion and against the moral code inculcated by Christianity."

"It's obvious that the present period is marked by a conspicuous lack of stability - in our homes, schools and institutions, our commercial and public life as well as in individual experience," said the directors' statement.

Named as the new president of The Mother Church in Boston was John R. Peterson, a practitioner and teacher of Christian Science and the church's general counsel.

Happenings

A FREE blood pressure screening clinic will be conducted by the Lake County health department on Wednesday (today) at the Antioch library from 2 to 4 p.m. All adults are welcome. No appointment is necessary.

Nurses will screen persons and refer those with elevated blood pressure to a physician for medical evaluation. In addition, instruction for diets, medications and other aspects of controlling high blood pressure will be offered to those referred by their physician.

"When an individual's high blood pressure is controlled, the risk of stroke, heart attack and kidney failure is greatly reduced," said Dr. Steven Potsic, executive director of the health department.

A COMBINED immunization, hearing and vision screening clinic for children will be held Wednesday, June 21, at St. Peter's church hall in Antioch. The free clinic will be open from 9 to 11:30 a.m. Appointments are not necessary.

It is an opportunity for parents to have their children immunized against polio, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, measles, mumps, rebecca (german measles) and to determine if their hearing and vision are normal. All pre-school and school age children are welcome. Parents are asked to bring their children's past immunization records with them.
